EPICMIX PASS: Tracking Lift Rides and Vertical

This season, CSCers will be able to track their lift rides and vertical on the Breckenridge & Beaver Creek trips. Both mountains are part of Vail Resorts and their tracking system...EpicMix. Last season was the beta trial for EpicMix and the Resorts had a terrific response. Lift tickets this year will be equipped with an RF logo on the back that can capture stats automatically as soon as you pass by a lift operator. Wear these passes on a lanyard or in a jacket pocket in the front and center of your torso to be easily scanned. Don't carry electronic devices or anything else in the same pocket or location as this may interfere with the scan process. Each participant can register and set up an online account via computer or mobile phone (there is an app for iPhones and Androids).

EpicMix calculates your vertical feet based on your lift rides on the mountain. The difference between the elevation of the top of the lift you got off of, and the elevation of the bottom of the lift you get on next, equals the vertical feet covered by that run. When you leave for the day, and stop riding lifts, it knows you have left the mountain and can add the vertical feet covered for your last run of the day to the day's total. Based on your activity and exploration on the slopes, you will earn pins. Pins are determined by where, when and how often you ski and ride at all six resorts. See www.epicmix.com for more information.

2012 FSA TRIP

CRESTED BUTTE ... "COLORADO'S LAST GREAT SKI TOWN"

Thirteen spots are already filled on this long-awaited trip to Crested Butte. Few places remain that can be called a true Colorado ski town. Crested Butte is considered a holdout, retaining its small town charm and the adventurous soul it has always had as a historic mining town. From the abundant wide open green and blue groomed trails, to more advanced long cruisers and the famous extreme limits of the North Face and Headwall, the mountain has it all.

Off slope, the fun doesn't stop. For a small town like this to have three locations for sushi, six great pizza places, and more than 30 bars is hard to believe. There is also live music almost every night at places like the classic Eldo bar or the intimate Princess wine bar on Elk Avenue in downtown Crested Butte. The shopping is also an adventurous undertaking with small specialty shops and galleries to explore, each one distinct in its offerings and style.

The Cornhusker Ski Club has not been to Crested Butte since January 2000 - and many exciting mountain changes await us! This is our annual Flatland Ski Association trip.

Our sleeper bus departs Tuesday evening, January 24, 2012. We'll ski full days January 25-28 and an optional half day on January 29. Our bus departs for home Sunday afternoon, January 29, returning early Monday morning, January 30.

The trip price includes:

- * sleeper bus transportation;
- * 4 nights lodging at the Plaza Condominiums (2 and 3 bedroom condos, minimum occupancy);
- * 4-day lift ticket w/a 5th day optional (half day of skiing);
- * Club pizza party the first night;
- * FSA activity ticket, which provides two evening meals; and
- * Practice time on race course for our club only.

The Plaza Condominiums are located just 100 yards from the main Silver Queen quad lift, offering condo conveniences in a hotel-like setting. The Plaza is an easy walk to the action-packed ski area base and provides the most on-site amenities of any complex in Mt. Crested Butte, including a sauna, indoor & outdoor hot tubs, free village shuttle, lounge, restaurant and more.

Call Crested Butte Trip Captain, Teresa Ingram for cost details.

Beaver Creek/Vail

BEAVER CREEK, NOT EXACTLY ROUGHING IT is the mantra of the mountain. What does that mean exactly? Many answers come to mind..the express lifts, the noon grooming by multiple groomers side by side, the Riverfront Express Gondola over the river near our condos to easily move us to the Lower Beaver Creek Mountain Express lift, the escalators at the base of Beaver Creek, and the chocolate chip cookies at the end of the ski day will be part of the experience.

The Rose Bowl lift is being replaced by an express lift. Watch this video to see the installation of the new Rose Bowl (chair 4) express lift....very impressive! Visit: <http://buzz.snow.com> (click on "Videos" on right of page and then click on Beaver Creek under the Video Channel list.)

The third CSC trip is scheduled for Beaver Creek, Colorado, Sunday, March 4, to March 9, 2012.
Call Trip Captain Hollis for cost.

Trip price includes:

- five nights lodging at Avon by Beaver Creek in two-bedroom condos.
- 4-day lift ticket with the option to add additional days. The lift ticket will be good at Beaver Creek, Vail, Keystone, Breckenridge and A-Basin, There is no senior rate available.
- lunch voucher ($15) for lunch on the mountain one day. Travel is on your own at this point. If there is enough interest in the trip, we will check on bus transportation, at an additional cost.
