Monthly Cornhusker Ski Club Meetings 3rd Tuesday of the Month at 7:30 p.m.

Snowmass Trip Review

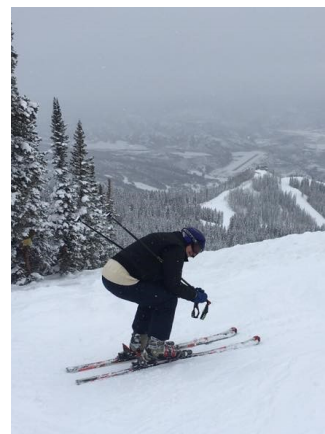

On December 7, the Cornhusker Ski Club left the Windstar bus terminal with 22 members aboard. We picked up four other club members along Nebraska on the way to Snowmass. We arrived earlier than expected around 5:30 a.m. We were all able to get into our assigned Tamarack Condos.

Aspen Highlands opened as well and many members of the club took the shuttle bus to find some great untracked powder. Once again, club members ate out at the various area restaurants.

On Sunday, nine club members skied the extra day.

It was fairly warm with sunshine and some new snow blew in overnight. Jim and Steve were 6th and 7th on the Big Burn lift and enjoyed boot deep powder in the trees along Power Line along with Joe who joined later. We left the condos on time at 4:30 p.m. to head to Eagle, CO, to eat at Wendy's and Subway. We arrived into Lincoln at 6:30 Monday morning. It seemed that a good time was had by all, with no major injuries.

Trip Captain
Hollis Anderson

It was very cold at 1 degree and around 4 degrees when we headed to the slopes mid-morning. The snow cover was not as good as in December 2015.

Thursday evening the Club had a pizza party at condo #35, with good pizza, cookies and conversation. Friday was a warmer day, but very little sunshine. Several skiers went to Aspen Mountain which had much better snow than Snowmass. What made the day brighter was the NU Volleyball winning a very tough match! Club members ate out at various area restaurants that evening.

Saturday was the warmest day in mid-30s with some new slopes open and a couple of hours of sunshine.

STEAMBOAT—FSA SKI TRIP JANUARY 25-29, 2017

In less than two weeks, 61 Cornhusker skiers will be headed for the 53rd Annual FSA Ski Week in Steamboat Colorado. Thirty-six skiers will load the bus on Tuesday, January 24, at Windstar Lines at 5621 Schwietzer Road in Lincoln (with a few of them hopping on at various interchanges across the state). Loading will begin at 7:00 p.m., with departure promptly at 7:30 p.m.

Lodging will be at the Torian Plum Creekside in Steamboat. The ski-in/ski-out condos are very conveniently located just north of the Christie Peak lift. Twenty-six more Cornhusker skiers will be flying out or driving out to Steamboat. Some of them will be staying Tuesday night in the same complex, but to accommodate room assignments, many of them will change to different rooms on Wednesday.

A 40% discount is available for ski rental equipment through any of the four Steamboat Ski & Sport rental outlets located in and around Gondola Square. Go to www.steamboat.com/groupstore and use the code FSA2017.

After the first day of skiing, we will have a pizza party at 6:00 p.m. in the Conference Center in our condo complex. Pizza, beer, wine, and soda will be provided. This year the Thursday night FSA get acquainted party will be at the usual location at the top of the gondola. The Saturday night awards banquet will be at a base hotel. A preliminary agenda for the FSA events is located at <https://sites.google.com/site/flatlandskiassociation/2016-telluride-information>. The Cornhusker Ski Club should have a good shot at one of the top awards this year with so many skiers participating.

Everyone who is registered for the Steamboat trip should have already received an email (or snail mail for a few of you) from trip captain Nick McElvain regarding the pre-trip party and additional trip details. If you have not heard from Nick McElvain since Christmas, give him a quick email at nickmce@aol.com (or check to see if his emails may have been blocked by your email security).
