We raffled them off along with the trip certificates. Congrats to the four winners pictured on the left!

❄️ SKIING AT SNOWMASS AND ASPEN ❄️

By Jim Crook, 2023 Snowmass Trip Captain

Fifteen Cornhusker skiers made the drive or took the train to Snowmass in December. We stayed at Tamarack condos, which are a short walk from the lifts and almost ski in on the return. Tamarack has the best (in my opinion) hot tubs of any condos we've ever stayed at.

The Omaha Club was essentially on the same trip and hosted dinner for all of us Monday night. They supplied homemade lasagna, salad and bread. It was good to get together with fellow skiers from just up the road.

It's always a gamble skiing in mid-December, but the snow cover was adequate if not a little hard or firm. I only touched a few rocks except for one good hit that took out some P-Tex. The best thing about an early December trip is the lack of crowds. Rarely was there a lift line and if there was, it was no more than a minute or two. You could ski most anywhere and see just a few folks on the slopes.

If you've never enjoyed a December ski trip, or haven't done it in a while, I recommend it as a great way to start the season and the holidays. I hope to see you on the slopes next December.

TRIP INSURANCE

It's been said that trip insurance is never needed until it's needed.
What should you know about trip insurance?

- You must purchase trip insurance coverage before it is needed. Once you recognize the need, it is too late to protect your trip.
- After the initial trip payment is made and you have a good grasp of your total expected trip cost, it is good time to get the most accurate quote.
- An example of coverage for a $1,500 trip within the United States for a 60-year-old is approximately $63 through www.insuremytrip.com.
- If you need coverage for a pre-existing medical condition, there are time-sensitive eligibility requirements tied to your initial trip payment and you may have a limited amount of time to buy a plan.
