❄️ OUR FSA ADVENTURES @ STEAMBOAT ❄️

By Jennifer Simpson,
2024 Steamboat Trip Captain

The Flatland Ski Association (FSA) Clubs returned to Steamboat Springs this year for the 60th anniversary of the FSA! Thirty-three Cornhuskers stayed at Ski Inn condos, which are very convenient as you can actually ski in and ski out of them.

Over the 16 days before we arrived in Steamboat, 7 feet of new snow had fallen.

▲ Taking off on a foggy run at the top of the new gondola — Tom Starr, Jon Morgan, Todd Ingram, Steve & Patsy Meyer & Jerry Luedtke

We had a total of five days of skiing, and most took advantage of this. Steamboat had quite a large base of snow, so we enjoyed excellent conditions without ice or rocks.

We got together at the top of the Gondola at Thunderhead for the welcome party, which this year was an upgrade from the usual potato bar.

Proteins included chicken, pork, steak and salmon, and there were several hot and cold side dishes and amazing desserts.

For the Awards Banquet at the Steamboat Grand Ballroom, we had another amazing buffet with several entrees, sides and desserts. And free Boulevard beer to wash it all down at each banquet.

Dates are firming up for our 2025 FSA trip to Telluride! See our FSA Racing Award recap from CSC's Race Chair, Hollis Anderson, on page 5.
